NCHS 1980

What is Newton-Conover High School? Until the morning bell rings, it is nothing but an empty building. Then, the students wander in to fill the halls with laughter, learning, and a hope of finding the answers to the questions life is filled with. Everything revolves around the student. There are always people to talk to, listen to, eat with, socialize and study with. Students attend school each day filling their minds with as much knowledge as possible. Time is taken to help and to be helped, for all are striving for the most important aspect of their lives — the future.

Through the years, the students have given NCHS an atmosphere of serious learning and lasting friendships. There is never time to be lonely when memories of unforgettable experiences and thoughts of future events fill the heart. No matter where students go, regardless of new horizons — or even old ones — that call to them, they can always take their friends along as their silent co-pilot. Therefore, the yearbook staff would like to dedicate the 1979-1980 Cardinal to the dear friends and fellow students of Newton-Conover High School — the STUDENT BODY.

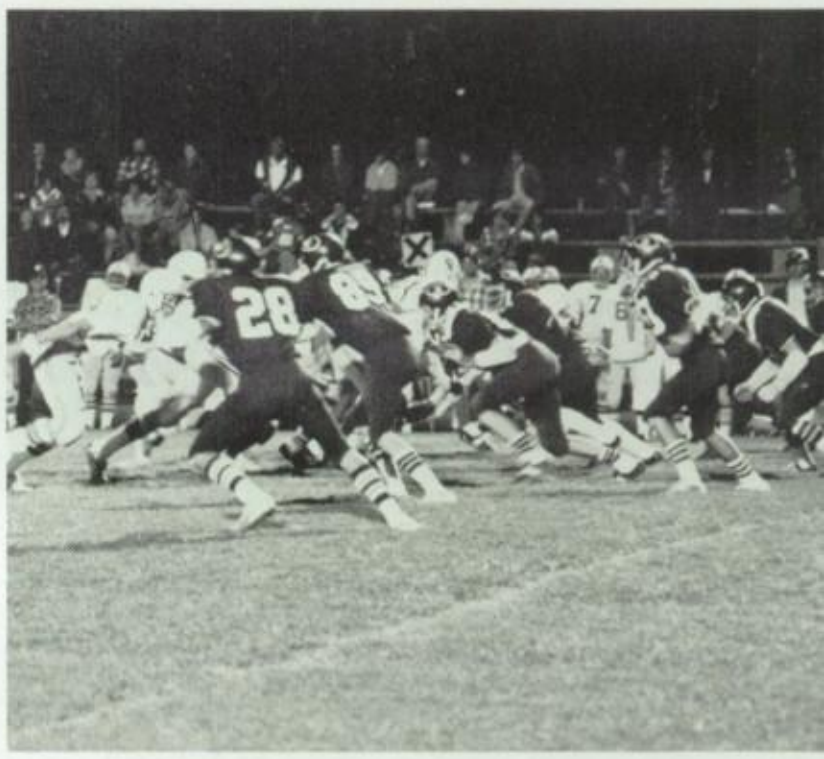
A time to love

A time to laugh



A time of war

A time of peace

A season is a specific time for something to take place. Just as there is a season for each stage of growth and development in our world, there is a time for each experience that forms a portion of our lives.

This year at Newton-Conover High School has been a collection of many seasons. Even though we may not realize it now, the memories of each experience will become a priceless tool for building our futures. The 1980 NCHS Cardinal Staff proudly presents ... "To Everything There Is A Season!"

To Everything There Is A Season And A Time To Every Purpose Under Heaven

A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

Alisa,
I've really enjoyed getting to know you this year. We've had some really good times this year, and I really appreciate being able to talk to you when I needed to. I hope everything works out for you the way you want it to. Have fun at college next year and don't party too much. Remember you're going there for school. Do your best yourself so hard and you'll see you when you come home from college.

OOOH! THAT'S SMARTS!

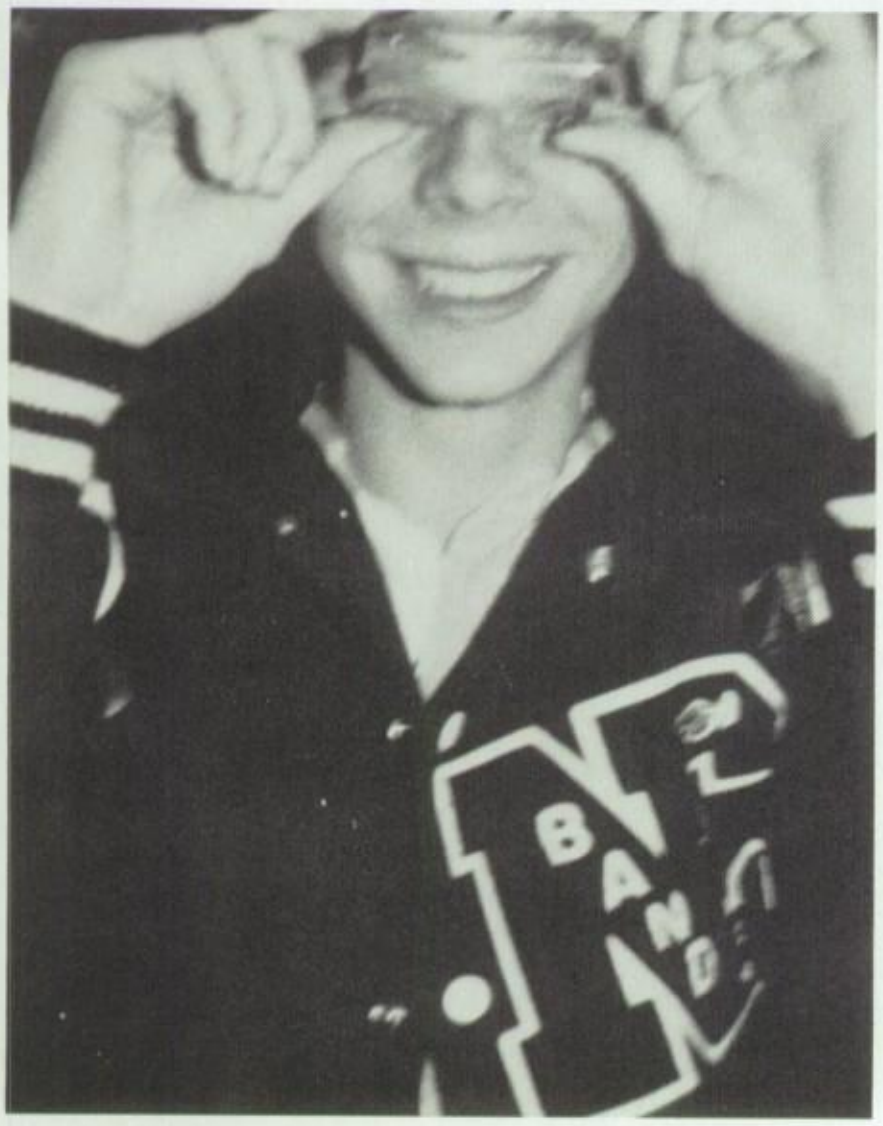
Fun, food, and friends ... what more could you ask for?

This is one toga party that got its "sheet" together!

A friend made once is a friend forever.

For six weeks this past summer, Janelle Spirnock attended Governor's School at? Her busy schedule consisted of many lectures, including a special, informative skylab lecture. She visited the Bowman-Grey Medical Institute where cadavers were displayed for medical purposes. She also went to the Schlitz brewery, which was a visit she particularly enjoyed! She studied theoretical aspects of science, too. (Whew!) Janelle spent her spare time playing volleyball, football, soccer, and tennis, while skating and dances with live bands were provided by the school. She also admitted that there were numerous, wild dorm raids — to put it mildly! Janelle met many wonderful people during her active summer and survived food that made the NCHS food taste like La Chateau! What a summer!

My intelligence never ceases to amaze me!



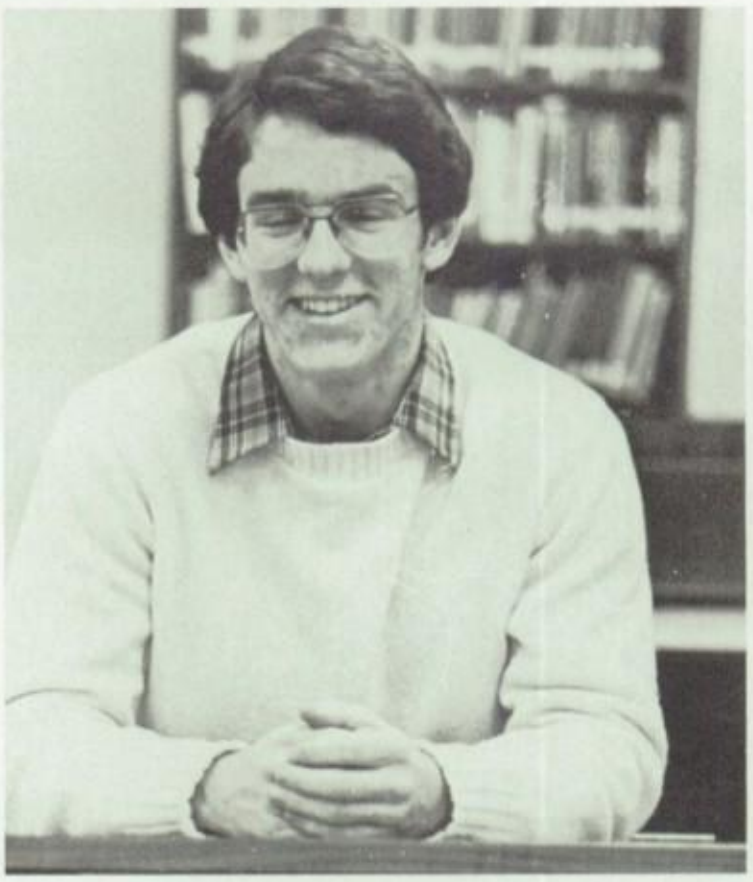
C'mon! Just try to see things my way!

Dennis Wesson spent six weeks out of his summer attending Governor's School. The subject he selected to study was math, which included problem solving, matrix algebra, and probability. Philosophy and applied psychology were required subjects. Jacob Bronowski films were shown three times a week and centered on fashion. The computer room occupied much of Dennis' time, as he tackled as many of their one hundred games as he could. During his stay, Dennis attended orchestral and choral concerts, dances, and lectures by various speakers, ranging from Joseph Weisenbaum, professor of computer science, to the author of Subliminal Seduction. When free time could be found, bowling, swimming, tennis, and football were offered. A basketball and softball league were also available, as well as a raquetball tournament. Dennis had little free time since he was on the annual staff.

After the hard work and vigorous workouts, Dennis became involved in heavy rivalry between his dorm, Greenville, and another guys' dorm, Wilmington. The Greenville dorm was notorious for its fifties serenade for the girls' dorm. Evenings were spent playing poker, robbing the coke machine, and playing his trumpet until four o'clock in the morning (with early classes the next day!) Other events Dennis enjoyed were "dungeons and dragons," questioning "What is real?," taking pillows to Bronowski films, Bronowski dress-alike day, and the Bronowski fan club. Dennis had a great time, except for the horrible food, and represented NCHS honorably!

Ours is a world where people don't know what they want and are willing to go through hell to get it.

This past summer, Darren Biehler attended the American Legion Boys' State on the campus of Wake Forest University. Representatives from high schools around the state attended this mock city and state government. They were divided into a Nationalist and a Federalist party. Darren participated in the city planning committee and was elected mayor of Broughton city in Clarke County — an honor only intelligent and special people can acquire.



What do you mean 2+2 isn't 5?!

I often wonder ...

Lynn, Tracy, and Kim hold a study session!

Girls' Staters hard at work!

Girls' State: fun, knowledgeable, and rewarding!

Kim Wooten, Tracy Kincaid, and Lynn Jones began their summer with a week of endless activity. Attending Girls' State '79 at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, they listened to hours of lectures by such personalities as Rufus Edmondson and Governor Jim Hunt. During afternoon classes they survived many heated discussions concerning the issues to be make into bills and sent to Congress. Swimming, tennis, bowling, chorus, and talent show practice were available if the girls were lucky enough to have some free time. Evenings included absolutely fantastic meals with a label of "all you can eat!" After the evening lectures, the girls wandered to their dorms where "all nighters" included making campaign posters, planning a toga party, boy watching, and sharing gossip with new friends. The political knowledge and the new friendships throughout their stay left the girls with unique and treasured memories, collected and stored forever!

HAVE PASSPORT, WILL TRAVEL

Finland is a small country. It is about the size o Montana and has a population of 4.2 million people Most of the people are farmers. My Finnish mothe got up at 5:30 a.m. every morning and milked eigh cows. She milked them again at 6:00 p.m. My siste and I helped make hay all summer. That is all th farming we did. Finland's growing season is not lon enough for vegetables. We had potatoes, carrots an beets in our garden. We made all of our bread. On food I could not eat was raw fish. It is one of the Fins favorites. We never went to the grocery store, i always came to us. A grocery truck came by the farm twice a week. The one thing I enjoyed the most wa the Finnish sauna. This the only way they wash themselves because in most homes they don't have showers or bathtubs.

I enjoyed my stay in Finland. It was an experience I'll never forget. I wish everyone could have the chance to meet a Finnish family and live with them for awhile. Their way of life may be old and simple but the pleasures they enjoy are missed in the fast way of life in America.

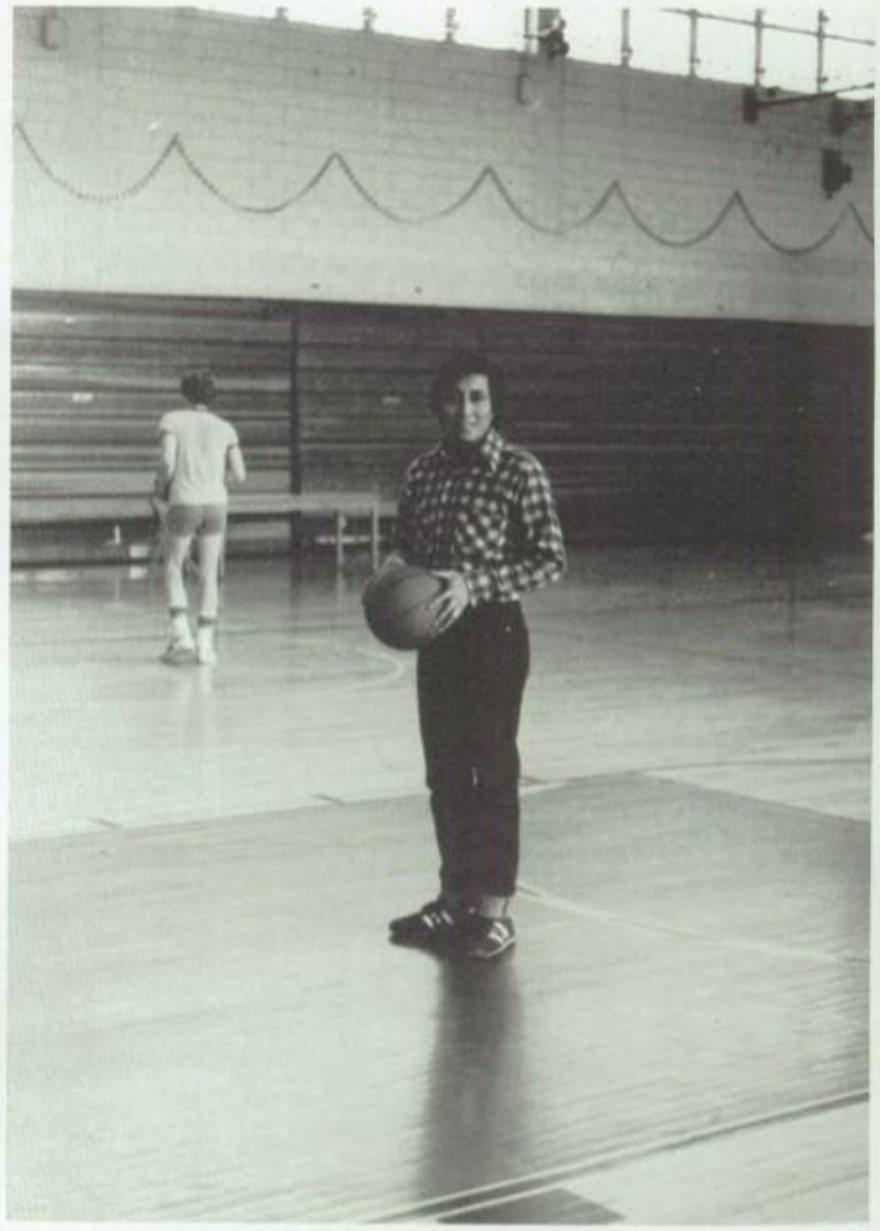
IT'S A SMALL WORLD

At "home" in Peru.



Fooling around in the gym, during his free time.

The first week of July, 1979, I got a letter from the Propst family, and they told me I was going to spend my AFS year with them in Newton-Conover, so I started to look for some information in magazines and American maps. Finally I got to New York in August and a few days later I arrived in Newton. The first problem I had was the language. I could not understand it very well or speak it either, but with some practice, now I do. My Peruvian life changed. Here I was going to be the AFS exchange student so it was going to be wonderful with many friends, a new school, and a new language. I thought it was going to be hard, but with the help of some friends and especially of my parents, Jeff and Jackie, I am having a good time. I will miss you a lot when I go home, but I will return, to be together with you, again, someday. Be sure that the Newton-Conover High School Red Devils are going to be known in Peru. Thank you for all — I will not forget anyone of you.

CHEERING THE SUMMER AWAY!

This summer the NCHS varsity cheerleaders took off to Columbia, S. C., to attend NCA cheerleading camp. They left on June 25, for four days of "learning, fun, and good times." After one day of all this "fun", they were ready to turn around and come back home. Sore muscles were probably the most intense thing they absorbed that week.

Regardless of the bad points—sore muscles, smoke bombs, terrible food, heavy arguments, and locked doors—they managed to have fun and get to know each other. They returned home a little weary and very victorious. The varsity squad brought home a "super-star squad" ribbon, two blue ribbons (superior), two red ribbons (excellent), and two spirit awards.

I LOVE A PARADE

The Reunion Day Parade was founded in 1891, almost half a century ago. This is the longest running event of its kind in the Carolinas. The first Reunion float was introduced in 1916. Prior to that, just bands and veterans of the war paraded through the city.

Today, there are an array of colorful floats, talented high school bands blaring patriotic tunes, and cheerleaders arousing spirit. Important town officials and beautiful, pageant-winning girls exhibit power and grace as they acknowledge the townspeople with a friendly wave of the hand. Everyone involved in the Reunion Day Parade symbolizes competition, victory, companionship, and a patriotic spirit that continues to flourish year after year.

Practice makes perfect!

Lucy Lofland Day began (not so) innocently enough when Mr. Randall Hubert Floyd I arrived at the Lofland residence to escort Miss Lucy to school. As they arrived at NCHS, approximately 3 hours late, they were greeted at the door by an irate Jan "Rah Rah" Johnson, who thrashed Miss Lucy with a dozen crimson carnations. A Mr. Mouth Hall carried her and her books to and from the classes she decided to attend. Her lunch was bought (or should we say charged) by the man with clout, Mr. Deanford Slackey, after much difficulty in getting his head through the lunchroom door. Mr. Peterford Ekonomon arrived at her lunch table, (after receiving another so called letter from the Alabama football coaching staff) only to devour both his and her "lunch" and her slightly mutilated bouquet. The day was not totally wasted as she was immortalized in crayon by the stupistic ability of the magnificent Mr. Eric "Tiny Toilet" Littlejohn.

Lucy Lofland, a senior here at NCHS, is also a champion golfer. She got her start at 8 years by her father, Bud, who took her golfing with him at the Country Club and bought her a set of clubs. He taught her the basics and then turned her over to Sherrill Austin, golf pro at the Club, for lessons. Her favorite pro is Joanne Washam, whom she got to meet and play with about 6 years ago at the Women's Tournament in Raleigh. Lucy plans to attend UNC and then try her hand in the big time by turning pro. We all wish her the best of luck, but we doubt she'll ever need it.

Roses are red, violets are blue ...

OFF ON THE RIGHT FOOT!

This has been a successful first year for the Specialty Corps. Not only did they perform the duties of the majorette, they also performed dances and routines to the music of the band. Whether marching in a parade or performing on the football field, these five girls always managed to put their best into their performances. Certainly the effect of our band would have been lessened without the contribution of the Specialty Corps members.

STEPPING UP!

The flag team has demanded a lot from its members this year. The girls sacrificed much for their long hours of practice, but also gained an honor which they cannot soon forget — they were awarded second place in their division among other flag teams over the state by judges at the Bristol, Tennessee competition. Their precision drill during half-time performances has added much to the excitement of the football games this year, as well as to the recognition of the Newton-Conover High School Band.

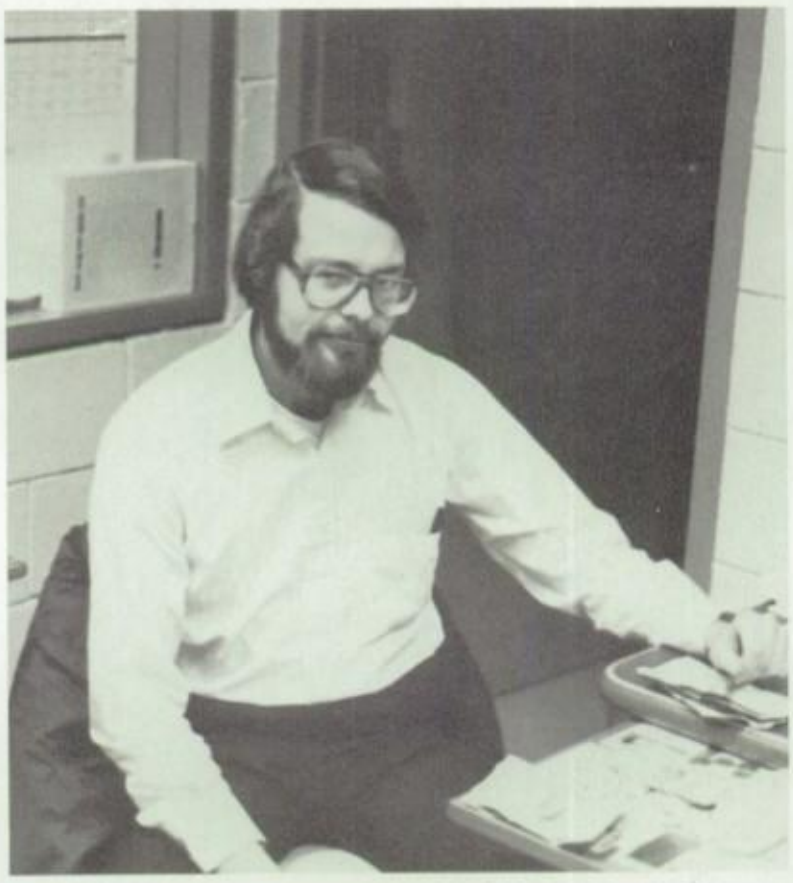
The spirit of the pep band is essential for the support of our basketball team here at NCHS. These volunteer band members provide not only entertainment for the spectators during half time, but they have been great in helping the cheerleaders support our team this year. Even with their hard weekly practices and performances, they should be proud that the basketball games would not have been the same without them.



Ted Driver, the assistant band director, has been a great help to Mr. Stockner in directing the band, and with other band activities. Mr. Driver graduated from the N.C. School of the Arts and also has a certification at UNCC. He also made All-State Band and Orchestra in college and was among Who's Who of Colleges.

The Entertainers

After trying out and being selected to be members of the stage band, these performers held practices every week. This talented group is hired to entertain at social functions and dances, including the annual New Year's Eve Dance, and a wedding reception this year. They have done a great job in learning and then performing current songs, as well as music which appeals to all ages.

When the 1979-80 Varsity Cheerleading squad was chosen, they made it their responsibility to bring about the much needed alterations in the title "cheerleader". They set out to prove that they weren't afraid of a little dirt and hard work. Though their appearance often suffered, they wanted to show that glamour was not the only aspect of cheerleading.

From the very first day of school we saw evidence of their hard work hanging from the ceiling in rows of red, white and blue streamers and signs lining every wall! Though their "efforts" were: mauled, mutilated, spit upon, written on and put in flames with no one to blame, they never lost their spirit.

Whether it was backing the football team or collecting money for a "Pie in the Face" contest, they did it to the best of their ability and had a lot of fun in the process. The 1979-80 Cheerleaders are a very special squad and hopefully their name will be remembered at NCHS for many years to come. Although many squads have passed through these doors, let it be said that the 1979-80 squad was the best ever and nobody ever said "Let's Go Big Red" quite like they did!

Nineteen seventy-nine was a very good year for the Newton-Conover Football team. They kept up the winning tradition that has been a part of Newton-Conover for many years. The Devils had a slow start, howeer, losing two of the first three games. They lost the opener to state 2-A champ, Maiden, went on to defeat Bandy's, and then dropped a heartbreaker to highly ranked Hickory High. The Hickory game was the turning point of the season. The Big Red won the next four games and the last five out of seven. The Red Devils took a 3-0 conference mark into the Statesville game. The Devils lost a hard fight 27-18.

Many Newton-Conover players had a fine season. Newton-Conover's offense was led by All-Conference and WPC player of the yar Dean Lackey. Joining Lackey with All-Conference honors were Seniors Mark Hall, Randy Floyd, Allen Lineberger, and Tommy Hetrick. The Juniors also made their mark with Danny Fleming and Juan Perkins collecting All-Conference honors. Franklin Reinhardt won the coveted "Team Before Self" Award.

The 1979 football team ended with a record of 6-11 overall and 4-2 in the conference. The team got super backing from the loyal fans of the community and the biggest fans of all, the varsity cheerleaders.

Team Before Self

Franklin Reinhardt was the 1979 recipient of the Team Before Self honor by the Newton-Conover Optimist Club. James Spears, left, president of the N-C Optimists, presented the award. Reinhardt was an offensive guard who also saw some defensive action. "Frank has just done anything we've asked — the kids made a good choice for that honor," said head coach Don Patrick.

Homecoming Queen

The Homecoming Festivities began this year with the carnation sale. There were white ones for your special friends, pink ones for the person you've always liked, and red ones for your one and only. NCHS students showed their abundance of spirit at the pep rally that Friday. Their rooting helped lead the Red Devils to their victory. Margaret Lynn, senior, was selected as this year's Homecoming Queen and after NCHS defeated West Iredell, there was a victory dance held in the gym. Needless to say, Homecoming was a great success and we'll do it again!

THIS IS POWDERPUFF?!

Powderpuff football?! There's no such thing as powderpuff football! This annual event for the NCHS girls had become a tradition at Newton-Conover. There are two games played: 1) Juniors vs. Sophomores, 2) Seniors vs. winners of game one. Sound simple? Just take one look at the games and hard work; it is through anticipation, skill, fatigue, cleverness, quickness, enthusiasm, determination, pain, the agony and despair of defeat, and the triumph of victory!

The speed and clever tactics of the Junior class enabled them to conquer the Sophomore and the Senior girls with ease. Juniors: 28, Sophomores: 6; Juniors: 22, Seniors: 6.

LET'S GO J.V. TEAM!!

Camera shy? No way!

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders showed their support and spirit this year during all the JV games. They spent their time in practice, hanging posters, performing stunts and building morale. Although the JV games are usually somewhat "under-crowded", these six girls did their best to get those fans on their feet and the team fired up!

Jimmy Danner is indestructible.

The game plan is made!

This year's J.V. team really practiced hard — some would think that it paid off, but others would have more to say. They practiced from 3:30 till dark everyday. Upon going home their families would promptly leave — knowing that "old grouch" had arrived. One of the good things that came out of the season was the anticipation of being a varsity player next year. Watch out boys! Practice starts sooner than you think.

BUMP, SET, SPIKE IT!

THAT'S THE WAY WE LIKE IT!

No 'butts' about it! Teamwork is where it's at!

Let's do the bump!

The 1979 NCHS girl's volleyball team did not win the conference championship, but the important thing is what they did accomplish. Most of the season was spent concentrating on "real" volleyball, with each offensive act a smooth combination of the three basic hits: bump, set, and spike. It was an enjoyable season, despite the conference record, and certainly a rewarding one. After all, V.B. is for everybody!

The NCHS girl's tennis team had a very successful season this year, falling only to Statesville, while the doubles team of Susan Carpenter and Lori Kuchenbecker defeated State ranked K. Adair and K. Raymer also of Statesville. All three of these girls advanced in the Sectionals. Lynette moved to the semi-finals and Lori and Susan secured a spot in the finals.

This year's team was relatively young, consisting only of sophomores and juniors. Lynette Inscoe, junior, was voted WPC Player of the Year and received an All-Conference Player title. Lori Kuchenbecker, junior, was also an All-Conference Player and Susan Carpenter, sophomore, was awarded "honorable mention." What do the girls have to say about all this? "Wait 'till next year, we'll all be back!"

CARROUSEL PRINCESS

Annette Shuford

This year Annette Shuford was chosen to represent NCHS as Carrousel Princess in the annual parade. Annette attended the Queen's Luncheon on Wednesday where last year's queen and the parade marshal presided. Later that evening, she attended the Queen's Coronation where the new queen was announced and later she attended the Pageant and Coronation Dance. On Thanksgiving Day, all of Charlotte gathered to watch the parade where Annette rode smiling on a float. It was an experience that Annette, and all of us who backed her, will long remember.

Advisor: Miss Barbara Hildebran.

The Jr. Civitan Club kept its members busy this year with different activities, such as; sponsoring the Carousel Princess, giving a Halloween party to a group of children at Newton Elementary and Christmas carolling at the Old Folks Home. In addition every spring they sponsor the Miss NCHS pageant. Another club, the Newton-Conover Interact Club, is dedicated to helping with and creating helpful projects within the school and community. One such project was the selling of donuts to help raise money for the United Fund. They are also concerned with the well-being of the public; therefore, this year's goal of Interact 767' was for every member to learn Cardio-Pulmonary Resusitation.

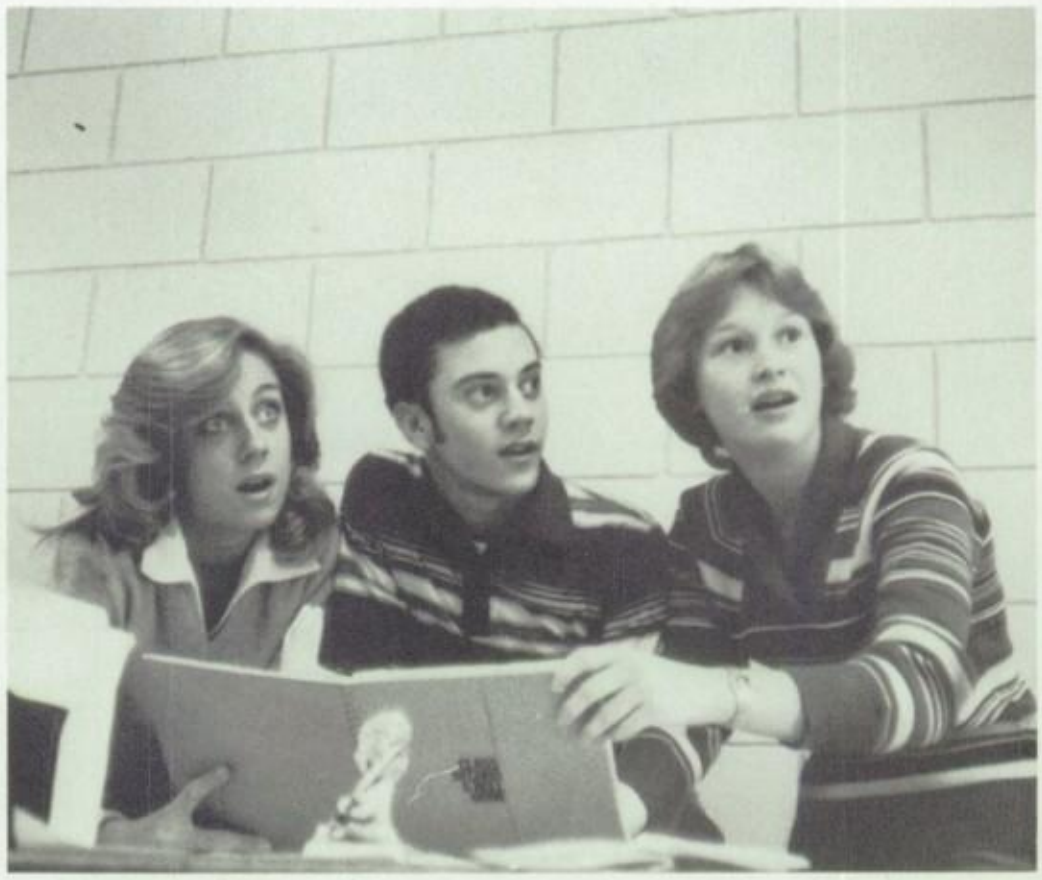
The Beta Club is an educational organization designed for high school students everywhere. Students are inducted in the fall semester of their junior year. Membership in Beta signifies that the student is of good character, attitude and mentality, is in the top 10% of their class, and has at least a 3.5 average. The Beta Club is involved in NCHS activities throughout the year. To date, they have sold programs at the football games and bought mats for the gym. Each year they give a scholarship to an outstanding student and make donations to the school fund.



Setting a good example?! Beta Club officers — Janelle Sprinock (secretary-treasurer), Bruce Ingle (president), and Lynn Jones (vice-president).

The Varsity Club was founded at NCHS 24 years ago. Since that day, many students have obtained this sign of honor. They earned their letters through participation in either a boys' or girls' sport and are in charge of operating the concession stand at home games during basketball season. The Varsity Club is an integral part of our school; showing their spirit by trying to keep the Red Devils number one!

HOMEROOM REPS.

The Student Council, with the help of the homeroom representatives, conducted many projects this year. The carnation sale at Homecoming and Valentine's Day was a big success. Spirit Week brought in balloons, and spirit chains. The door contest was held this past Christmas, also. Santa sacks, hush buttons, and the mailboxes for the Christmas cards and Valentine cards were also sponsored by the Executive Council.

Homeroom Representatives: Standing: Karen Harman, Tina Sipe, Zina Williams, Melanie Wilson, Laurie Black, Amy Gantt, Lori Kuchenbecker, Leslie Foster, Stephanie Hovis, Ginger Moser, Darren Biehler. Sitting: Diane Blackwood, Butch Sigmon, Micheal Jackson, Franklin Reinhardt, Patti Day, Scarlet Davis, Teresa Coulter, Monich McGee, Teresa Ingle.

EXEC. COUNCIL

The Student Council attends many workshops each year. One that they go to every summer is the Mars Hill Workshop. The Nationals are held at different places each year. Last June it was held in Winterpark, Florida. Linda Lawing was the representative there. This summer it will be held in Colorado, but the representative has not been chosen yet. Last March the Western District Convention was located in Hickory. Among other workshops our executive council attended the St. Stevens Student Council Workshop and the State-Convention that was held in High Point. The elections are held there, also.

Executive Council: Jay Johnson, Chris Benton, Linda Lawing, Leah Pannell, Margaret Lynn, Cathy Coley, Jay Gaither.

Each year, the NCHS Chorus presents both a Winter and Spring Concert. With their success of the musical plays "Li'l Abner" and "Oklahoma", the chorus plans to stage "Bye, Bye Birdie," this spring. Last year, the chorus participated in the Regional Choral Festival Contest at Lenoir Rhyne College and received a "Superior" rating. Naturally, they plan to go back again this year and show them what NCHS can do!

MAIN SITUATION

Main Situation is a choral group with about 20 members. These members are picked for their ability in the music field. Each year Main Situation gives concerts for country clubs, churches, schools and other organizations.

TALENTED? WHY OF COURSE!

ALL STATE BAND

After many hours of trying, tiring, and tedious practice, eleven outstanding band members at NCHS were chosen for the All-State Band. Several hundred students attended the tryouts held at Olympic HS and were judged by high school and college band directors. The practice didn't end with the selection, however, as the NCHS participants went to Shelby. There, they joined the other All-State members to hold a two day practice session, averaging seven hours a day. The end result of all this work was a well-prepared, enjoyable concert held at Shelby HS.

MARS HILL CHORUS

This year NCHS had five outstanding Chorus members attend the Mars Hill Chorus Clinic. Tracy Eckard, Teresa Coulter, Kerry Hayer, Rickey Clarke, David Powell, and Todd Lewis were selected to attend the clinic. Weeks of practice were ended with an audition at East Burke HS. These students joined others from North Carolina for two days of practicing and a public performance.

HONORS CHORUS

NCHS was fortunate enough to have one student to attend the III Annual Honors Chorus in Winston-Salem. Chorus teachers throughout NC sent their best students to audition at East Burke HS. Many students auditioned but only the best were chosen. Kerry Hayer represented us well.

The 1979-1980 basketball season got under way early in November. This year's group of guys put in long, hard hours of running, shooting, and drilling. Despite their won-loss record, the varsity team had a successful season. They learned to work together as a team and make the best use of the talent they possessed. The highlight of the season was the near win over state-ranked Hickory High Tornadoes. The Red Devils fell short of a victory by a score of 54-53. Many of the more valuable team members will be back again next year to try their hand at the WPC title.

What a jump shot! Lisa McCorkle

It takes a lot of dedication to spend two hours each afternoon working out to make ready for the "big" varsity games and yet they did. This year's young ball team, consisting of only one senior, had to work extra hard to prove themselves to the Red Devil fans and they did just that. They had some big wins and some heart breaking losses but this season was really a test for next year. Three Sophomores gained varsity experience and will be a valuable asset to next year's team. Next year the Devilettes will be ready to "take on" even the best of teams.

Coached by Roland Scott, the Junior Varsity girls' basketball team finished the season with a conference record of 5-5 and an overall record of 7-10. They also ended the season tied for 3rd place in the conference with South Iredell. Lori Fleming contributed much to the team as a high scorer. Teresa Ingle's defense was also an important asset to the team. Coach Scott was well pleased with the progress each player made during the season, and he feels that the girls will do well next year on the varsity team.

IF YOU CAN'T BE AN ATHLETE, BE AN ATHLETIC SUPPORTER!

The athletic boosters certainly have helped our sports program here at NCHS. Their contributions have been an important part of NCHS Athletics. The men and women selling buttons, blankets, toboggans, and other Red Devil paraphenalia, have become familiar faces to the communities Friday night football goers.

Each year the organization raises money through raffles and other fund raising activities. This money is used for the fall and spring awards nights and items needed by the athletic teams. This year's main project has been raising money for a new club house.

Parents of Newton-Conover school system youngsters as well as any interested people in the community are urged to join the Athletic Boosters. They really need your support.

The 1979-80 board members are:

The NCHS Band Boosters Club is a special group of people involved in practically everything in Newton-Conover. They are the hard-working bunch seen each year at the football games supplying devoted fans with refreshing food and drinks. To raise money they hold a band day, selling flowers, food and lots of friendship. They also work hard with an industrial drive to acknowledge the band and obtain more funds for the band. One event especially awaited is the annual New Year's Eve dance at the National Guard Armory. Also, each spring the club sponsors the variety show at Newton Elementary. The devotion of these hard-workers is full of a sincerity that has permanently aroused the spirit of NCHS.

THE SHOOTOUT: FACULTY -vs- STUDENTS

Q-Roo

The Student-Faculty Basketball game went over with a deafening THUD as the teachers of NCHS inched over the students with a score of 72-67. The faculty drilled long and hard for many grieving hours; however, the team never really did any of this practicing together. They used their experience on the court of the past 10, 20, and 30 years as their only practice. When asked, most of the teacher/stars couldn't remember who their coach was, why they played or what their names were, but they do remember their beloved, faithful cheerleaders and their three fans that attended the game to cheer them on to a victory. When questioned as to the strategy in their game plan, one familiar NCHS face who preferred to remain under the name, "Chocolate Thunder", said, "We were just trying to survive".....Inspiring words to live by!

"RING" IN THE NEW YEAR

The multitude of juniors who ordered their class rings this year anxiously counted down each day in December. The anticipation of slipping that band of gold or silver (be it simulated or real) on their fingers was too much. Then finally, on December 14th, they arrived. Juniors could easily be picked out in the crowd, they walked with heads held high and right hands extended. The shiny, new rings gleamed on those fingers and were constantly being rubbed clean of non-existent dirt on jeans and T-shirts. There is no bigger thrill than being able to turn that ring around and bounce it off a Sophomore's head ..... So, watch out underclassman!!

Have your money ready.

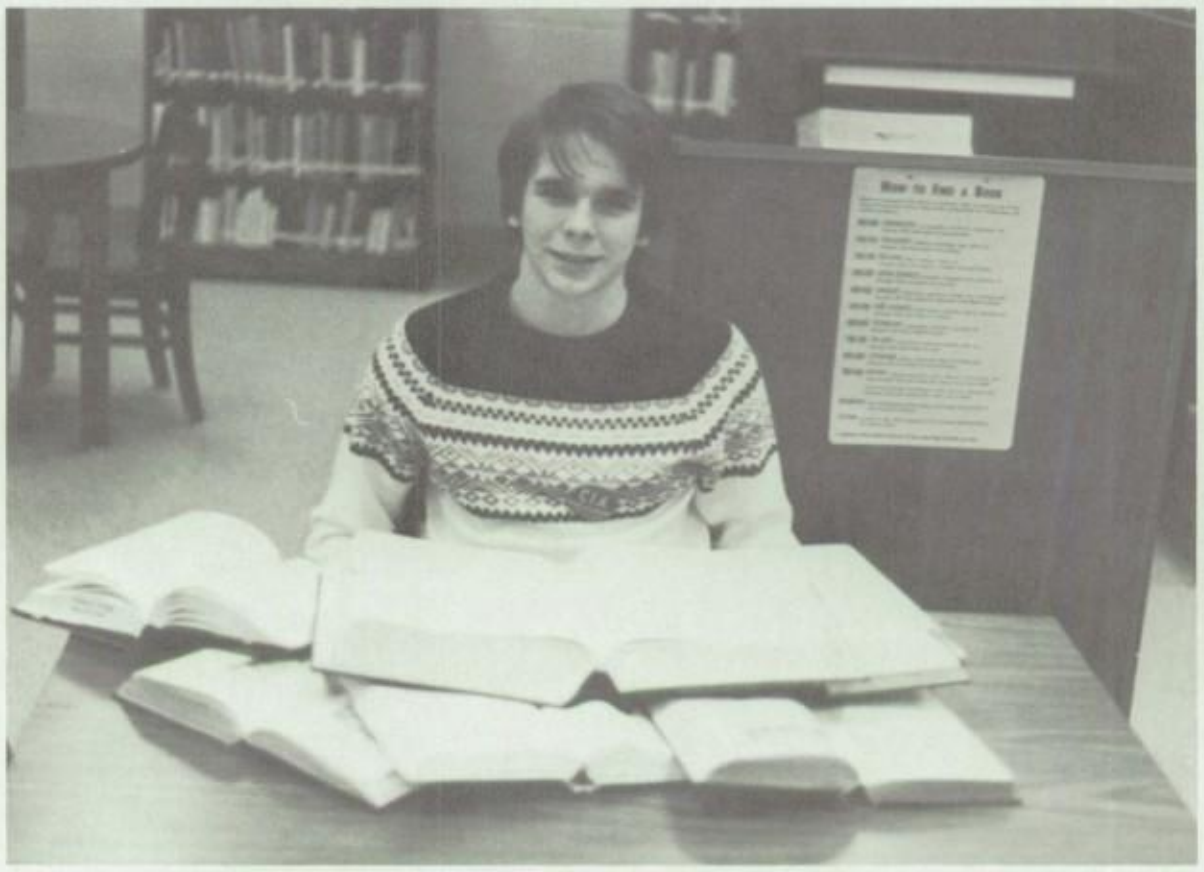
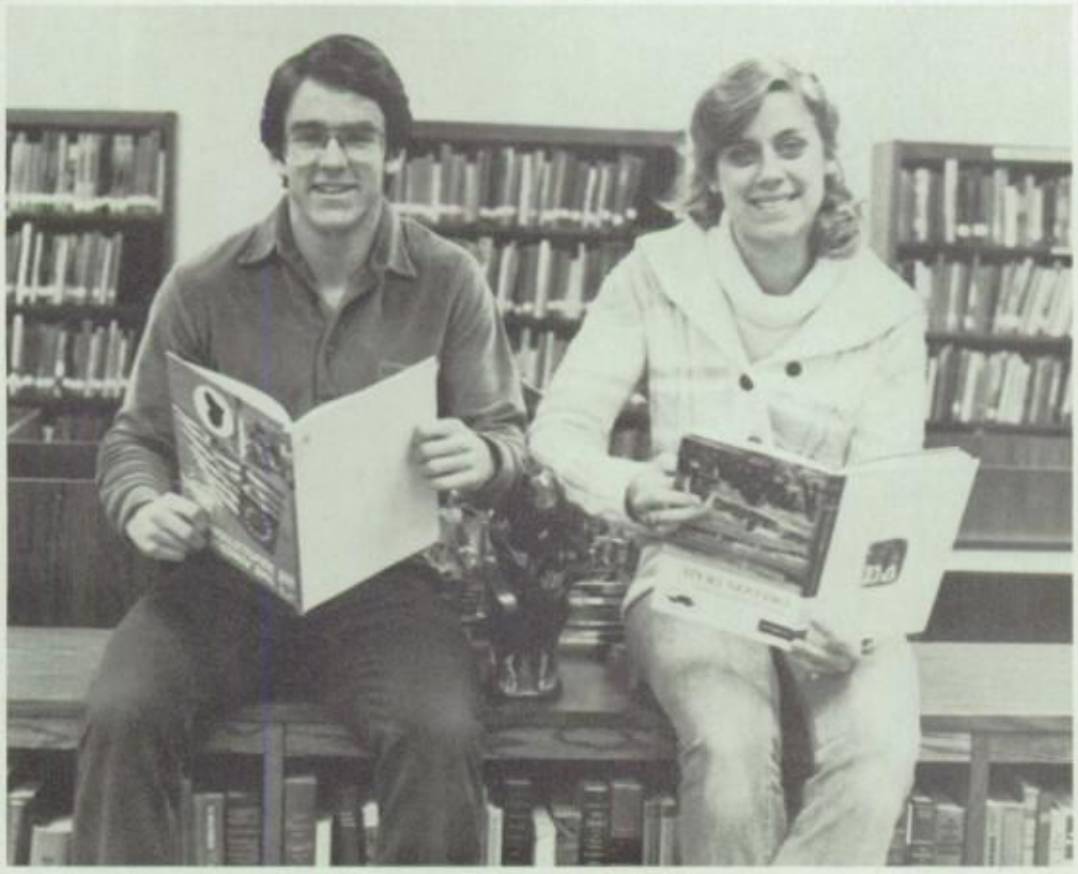
MOREHEAD & NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

"All things come to those who wait." And so, Dennis Wesson has been awarded the honor of being one of the fifteen hundred National Merit Scholarship semifinals for 1980. This honor is based on personal scholastic ability and personal achievements.





This year's nominees for the Morehead Scholarship from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, are Janelle Spirnock and Darren Biehler. They were interviewed by a county board, who in turn selected nominees to advance to the district competition. They were selected upon their scholastic ability, character, and physical vigor.

When It's Time To Relax . . .

The 1980 NCHS Annual Staff

You spend long gruelling hours sweating over the layout sheets. You're pushing for time. The entire student body is depending on you. Friday nights become the eves of painstaking work. You break 32 pencils in a rage because the pictures have not come back. Your best friends begin to get on your nerves. There is no time for homework, your social life is the pits, and your mother is constantly on your back to clean the annual junk off the floor.

But you made it! The final shipment is in the mail, on the way to the publisher. You throw up your arms in ecstasy. The hard work and headaches are over . . . . .

Daydreaming about graduation. Jimmy Shuford

Reid Glenn, Mark Leagon, Jeff Matson, Jeff Hilderbran, Todd Griffin.

You know they're dedicated when five guys are out chasing golf balls instead of girls. Dedication is watching the ball fly through the air, hoping and waiting, and then, of all the terrible fates, it lands in the lake. Although the golf team did not win a conference title, they have won much recognition here at NCHS.

SOME RUN AFTER GOLF BALLS; OTHERS JUST RUN.

In years past, girls have not participated strongly in the field of track. This year, however, NCHS was fortunate enough to have a girl's track team. The team was composed of seven enthusiastic and talented girls. Through hard work and long practices, the girls discovered hidden abilities and learned how to utilize them victoriously.

The team kept this objective in mind; however, the outcome wasn't always what they had intended. Even though the team didn't experience a great deal of wins, many of the team members gained satisfaction for their individual performances.

First Row: Amy St. Clair, Amy Harris, Agnus McCorkle. Second Row: Lisa Hawkins, Carol Smith, Eva Gries, Lee Sigmon.

RUNNING WITH THE DEVIL

Jumping hurdles, racing time, and making those feet move is what the track team is all about. Every spring the runners, jumpers, and throwers, come out to test their strength and ability. Each afternoon there are hours of long, hard practice.

The track team didn't fair too well last year but what they lacked in points they made up for in heart.

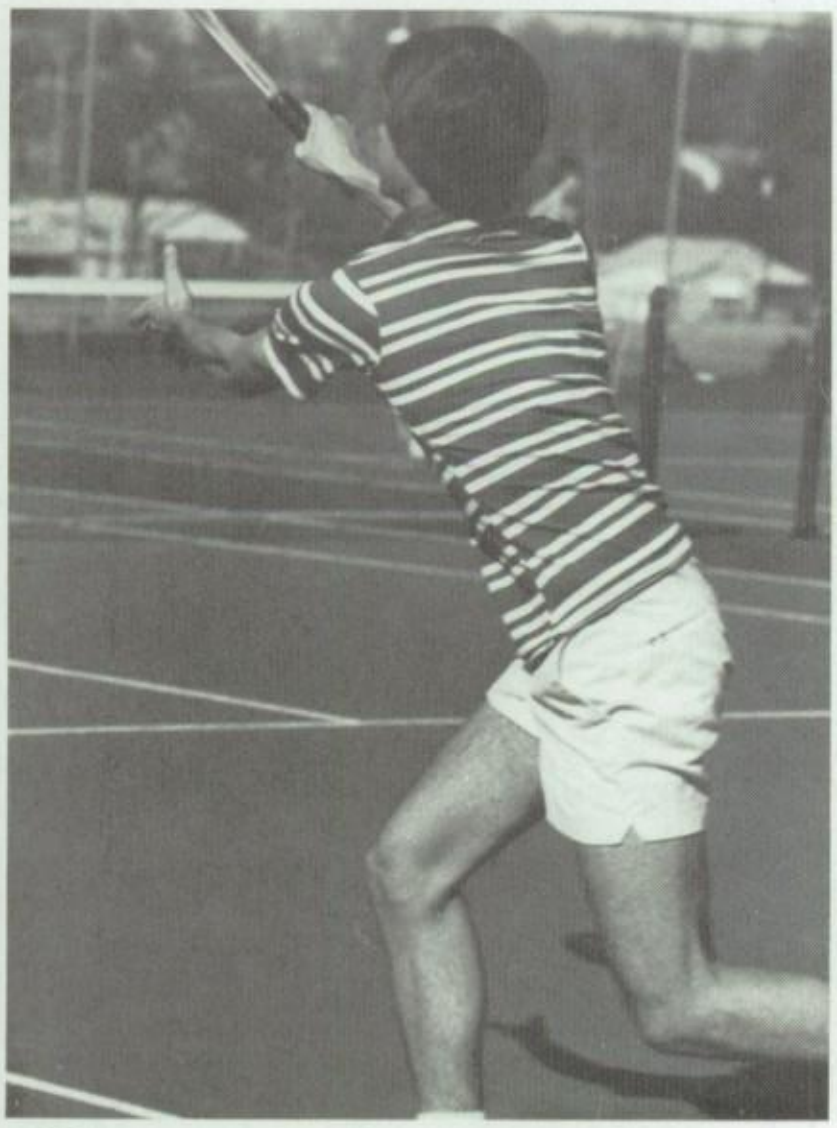
It's a hand-off!

The mile relay team of Jay Gaither, Danny Baucom, Darren Biehler, and Pete Sigmon placed second in the conference and did well in the sectionals. Darren Biehler also qualified for the sectionals in the long jump. Prospects for next year look good, with a few key performers returning.

Mile Relay Team: Pete Sigmon, Darren Biehler, Jay Gaither, Danny Baucom.

TENNIS IS OUR "RACQUET"

1st Row: Doug Lawing, Jeff Sowers, David Bolick, Jeff Allen, Gary Callahan. 2nd Row: Malcom Vaughn, Allen Thornton, Scott Beck, Mike Long, Jeff Arditti, Sam Foster, Joe Abernathy.



With the talent of the coach, Mr. Jones, the tennis team had a good season. With an overall record of 12-3 and a conference record of 10-2, the netters finished 2nd place in the conference behind Statesville. Jeff Sowers was voted All-Conference, and the talented team of Jeff Sowers and Sam Foster advanced to the Western Regionals in Hickory.

Marian Mason

The annual Miss NCHS Pageant, sponsored by the Jr. Civitan Club, is held the last week in March. Contestants are selected and sponsored by various clubs, homerooms and classes to represent their organizations in the contest. The participants are rated by a panel of judges on poise, beauty, personality, scholastic abilities and their activeness in the school. Last year, Marian Mason was chosen as the 1979 Miss NCHS. She was in the Beta Club, a cheerleader, Homeroom President, on the Student Council, in the Homecoming Court, the Spanish Club, FHA, and played Powder Puff football.

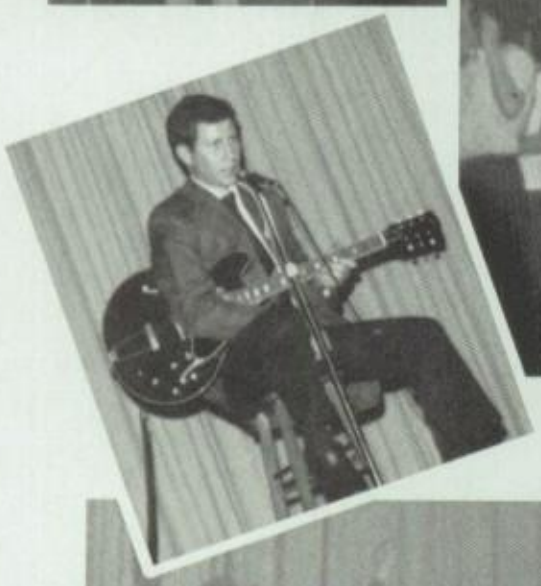
NIGHTS ON BROADWAY



Talent Show At School

Students of Newton-Conover High School are staging a talent show on Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium at N-C Junior High School.

The performance is being sponsored by the high school chorus and proceeds will be used to defray expenses of a Broadway musical to be presented in the spring, according to Martha Williams, chorus director. She said tickets for the talent show will be sold at the door.

The production is being coordinated by students, with Arthur Dunn as director and Cindy Pennell as his assistant. Dances are being choreographed by Paul Hartis.

The revue will include songs, dances, skits, TV-type commercials, and what Mrs. Williams called "surprise acts." One faculty member, John Cockman, will take part with the following students: Kerry Hayer, Taska Rockett, Franklin Reinhardt, Arthur Dunn, Tracy Eckard, Julie Dwiggins, Stephanie Hovis, Beverly Loftin, Lisa Taylor, James Evans, Rickey Clarke, Lisa Rockett, Marty Hollar, Leslie Foster, Paul Hartis, Monica McGee, Cindy Pennell, and Teresa Coulter

The thrills and chills of vaudeville took over NCHS on Thursday, November 14th when the chorus-sponsored Talent Show was staged. The performance was held in the NCJH School Auditorium. It turned out to be a "reeeally big" show with song & dance, skits and a few surprises.

The NCHS Band held its own rendition of "Broadway" last spring with the presentation of its Variety Show. The practices with Mrs. Jane Sigmon, chorographer, were long, hard, and sometimes confusing, but the participants managed to work their way through them and give a good performance. Their theme centered around the "Golden Oldies" with many excellent voice and instrumental solos and their group acts seemed to capture the excitement of true show biz.

BAND QUEEN

Susan Deiter

It is traditional at NCHS for the band to put on a Variety Show each year at approximately the same time. Previously, the band members have voted for one girl, usually a senior, that they would like to represent them as their Queen for the next year. The Variety Show runs for three nights. On the third night the Queen is announced and crowned by the former Queen. The 1979 Band Queen, Susan Deiter, was a four year member of the band, commander of the Flag Team her senior year, three year member of the Jr. Civitan Club, AFS Club, and Beta Club.

It's the day of the highlight of the year. After months of waiting and preparation, it's finally that magical day. The suspense is increasing at a rate you can't handle. You think that the hour will never arrive. You've heard comments about the band and decorations, but can it all be true?

Finally it's time, and you get yourself ready. You and your date are off to the 1979 Junior-Senior "Come Sail Away." The music has you spellbound and soon you realize it's over. What a night — a night you'll never forget!

Junior Marshals — 1980

In early February each year, after the class ranks are returned, Mr. Ingle picks the top eight Juniors to participate in that year's graduating ceremonies. These students usher at the Awards Day, the Baccalaureate Service, and Commencement Exercises.This year's Junior Marshals, picked because of their academic excellence, are:

a senior reflecting back on the high school experience . . .

I remember what it was like to be new around here . . . the place seemed a little bigger then, and though I never admitted it, a whole lot scarier! I remember searching hallways and stairways and auditoriums filled with unfamiliar faces, hoping to find someone to share my confusion with . . . and feeling so grateful whenever anyone smiled. For awhile, I wondered how I was ever going to fit into this strange, super-sophisticated world . . . but now I wonder what I was so worried about . . . the confidence came . . . and so did the fun!

What an assortment of unforgettable characters I've met here! There were classmates I liked from the start, and those who took a little getting used to . . . There were teachers I loved, and teachers I survived . . . There were upper-class celebrities who awed me with their style, and lower-class innocents who appeared to stand in awe of me . . .

But most of all, there were good friends I made here . . . and all the together times we shared. I remember times we won together and times we lost . . . times when we worried together . . . and times when we celebrated . . . but how do you ever say thanks for a mind full of beautiful memories? I remember autumns when all the excitement in the world flashed between two goalposts, winters warm with the glow of our holiday spirits . . . springtime that dazzled us with the promise of freedom, and long lazy summer vacations when not doing anything was our favorite group activity!

Looking back, I'm amazed that so many crazy and colorful things have happened to me! It won't be easy saying goodbye in the fall . . . June rolls around . . . and all my friends . . . But I have so much more to learn about the world and about myself . . . and it's time to get started. I only know that wherever I go, whatever I do, the days I've spent right here will always be a really special part of my life . . . A time to Remember!

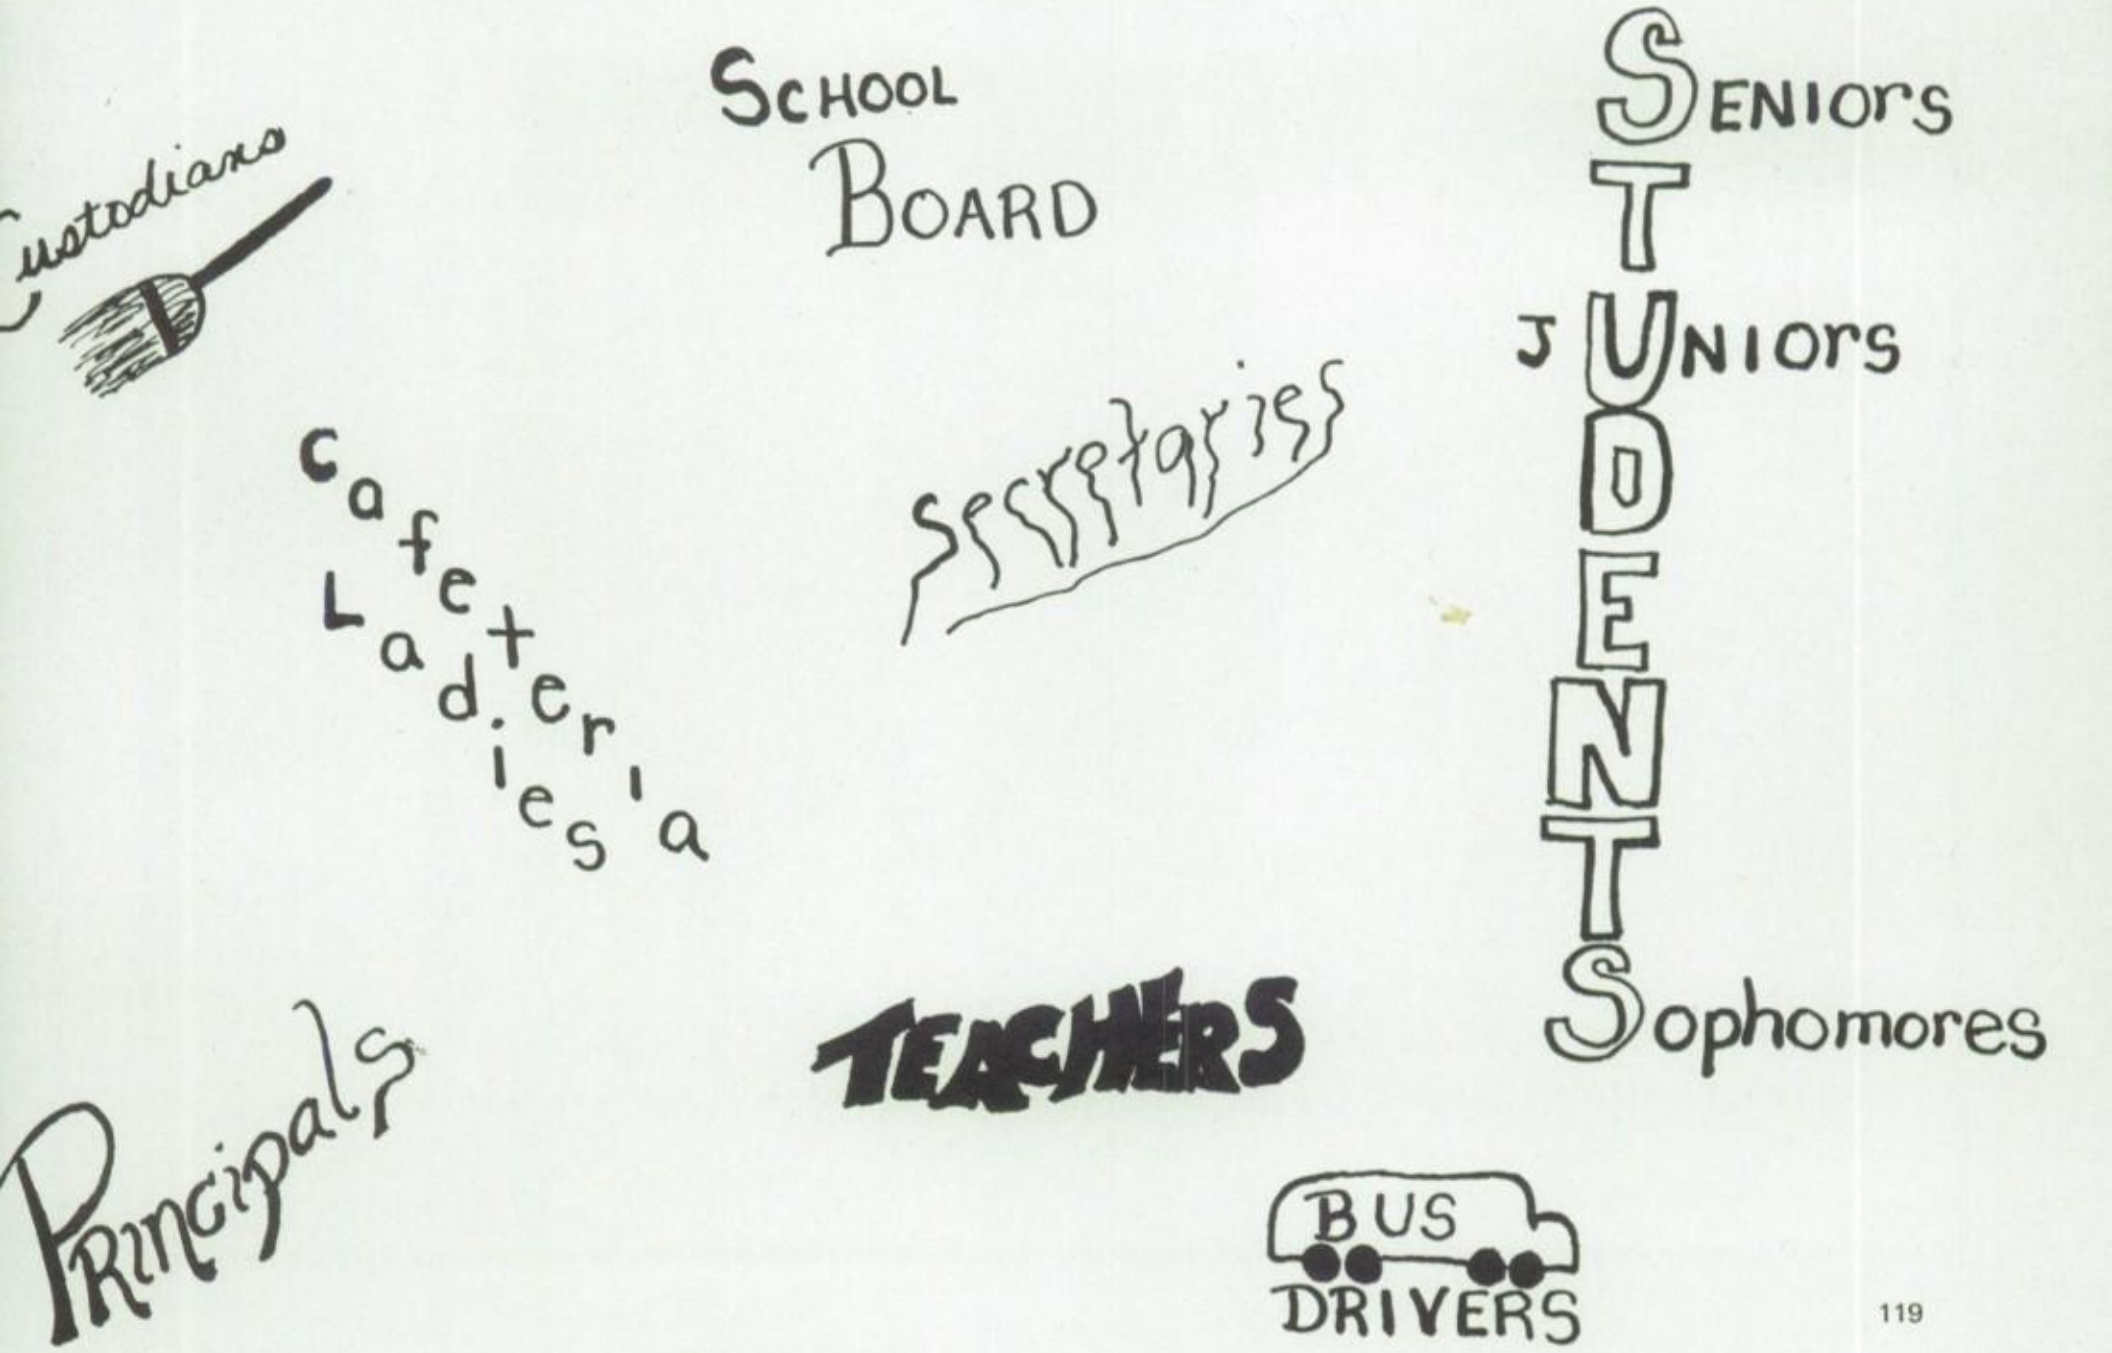
TO ALL OF YOU WHO MADE THIS YEAR POSSIBLE

NCHS To An Outsider

There once was a small backwoods school.
The folks there were all pretty cool.
But I'll tell you the rest,
The kids were the best.
If you don't agree, you're a fool.

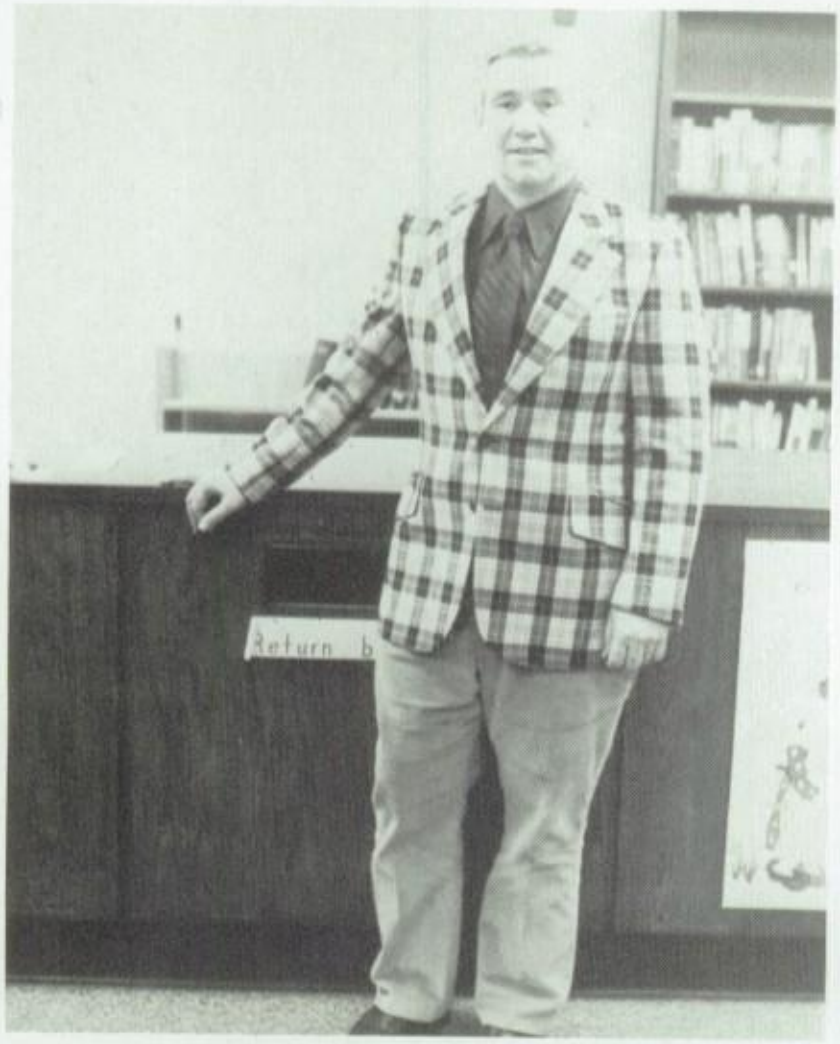
The students acted in all sorts of ways:
The brains, the jocks, and those who would raise.
There were even some wits,
Some preps and some twits.
Please join me and give them your praise!



DECISION MAKERS

Under the guidance of Superintendent Sherrill Cranford, our administrative staff is responsible for the efficiency of the Newton-Conover School system.

The goal of the Newton-Conover School Board, which is composed of community leaders, is to work toward the goal of better education for the students in the system.



Sherrill Cranford shares a smile!

PRINCI"PALS"

The management of NCHS is dependent upon our administrative body. Mr. Ingle, the head principal, leads the school with brusque authority, assisted by Mr. Rowe and Mr. Simmons, the assistant principals. These men are concerned with reinforcing the rules and regulations handed down to them from the main office — a responsibility undertaken rewardingly. Many thanks for the authority, knowledge, and friendship they spread throughout the school during the year!

Jerome Ingle finds a rare, spare moment out of his hectic schedule to have his picture taken.

Mr. Ingle lends a helping hand to NCHS band students.

Mr. Everett Simmons shares knowledge and "sunshine" with his students.

Mr. Bobby Rowe takes a split-second break while tallying up the varsity boys' scorebook.

YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE!!!

Mrs. Peggy Buchanan

Everyday from 8:00 until 3:30 these three faces can be seen either in the office, bandroom, or a classroom. Mrs. Peggy Buchanan can always be seen in the office and sometimes heard over the intercom. She keeps the office organized, makes sure bills are paid, and messages are delivered — she literally "runs the office". Also assisting her sometimes in the day, when not assisted by another student, is Mrs. Judy Beck. When not in the office, Mrs. Beck, with nerves of steel, keeps a watchful eye over numerous students in study halls. Mrs. Juanita Reinhardt is most often found in the bandroom keeping Mr. Stockner on his toes. She assists by writing letters, sorting music, and keeping the band office in order.

NECESSITIES AT NCHS

LEARN to Drive

The Helpers, once again, have gotten us through yet another year here at NCHS. They did everything from driving us home in the snow to cleaning up a dropped lunch tray. The bus drivers got us to school and back in all kinds of weather, getting out in the cold to put on the chains and warm the buses up. Mr. Bowman, aside from his maintenance job, found time to attend all the games. Ms. Crosby made sure that the halls were spotless. The lunchroom staff served us well-balanced lunches each and every day. These people contributed greatly to the school this year, and they have our sincere appreciation.

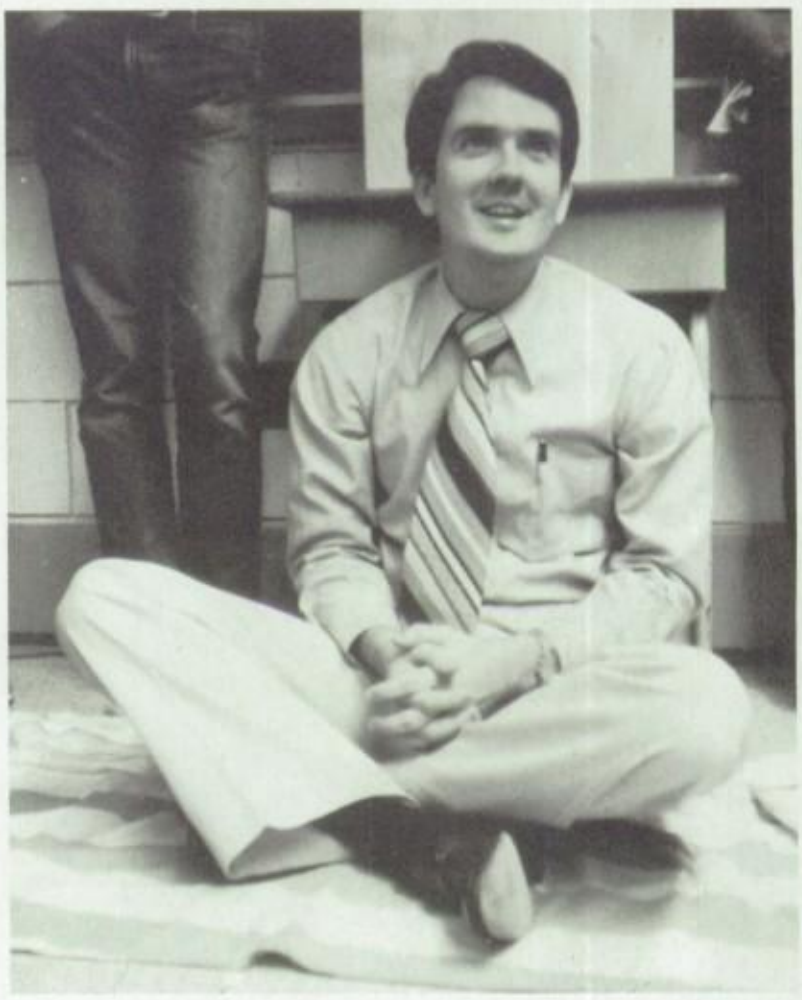
DON'T BE ASHAMED OF WHAT YOU ARE.
BY THE WAY, WHAT ARE YOU?

If I wanted your opinion, I'd beat it out of you.

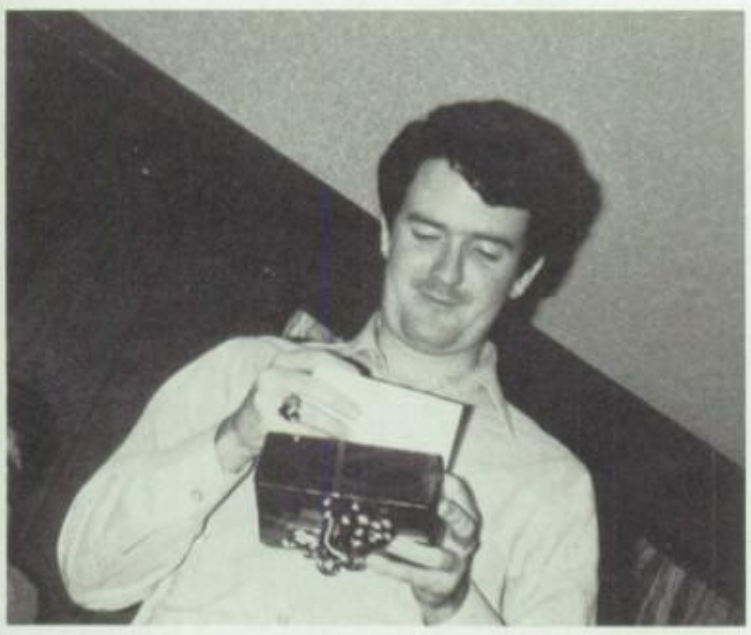
Last year's Mary Catherine Shivers award was presented to Larry Harris. The award, given by the Student Council and voted on by the graduating senior class, is given to an outstanding member of the faculty at NCHS. It's given in memory of the late Mary Catherine Shivers, a memorable teacher within the Newton-Conover School System.

Mr. Harris, a native of Kannapolis, NC, graduated from Pfeiffer College. He is a very dedicated teacher, involving himself in the school's activities. He advises the Student Government, coaches basketball, and teaches both U.S. History and Psychology. He tries to refine and improve his teaching methods so that he can reach, or attempt to reach, more students. As for his classroom technique, Mr. Harris says, "I usually just run off at the mouth."

Just when you thought you knew all the answers they change the questions.



"Youth comes but once in a lifetime."



"I fear the Greeks, even when they bring gifts."

Reserved for me

Alisa

During these past two years
I have realy grown to Love you which grows more & more each day.
Because you are a lovable person.
You were there when I needed someone
To talk to. you were there when I needed someone
Some one to care. well I Guess you were there
Just when I needed you. what we had at one Time was really great. I just wished It could have lasted but thats part of life. and I hope
I hope you have good Luck in the future and I hope money and susses follow you where ever you go.
Keep in touch. stay sweet for me.

Love
Michael Lee

Remember This

I Love you,
Not only for what you are,
But for what I am.
when I am with you.

I Love you,
not only for what you have made of yourself,
But for what you are making of me

I Love you
for the part of me
That you Bring out
I Love you for passing over all my foolish and weak traits
That you cant help but see

I Love you for Drawing out
Into the light my beauty that no one else had Looked Quite far enough to find

I Love you

Sorry
so sappy

Love
Mike ya
